

Ausgangspunkt meiner essayistischen Film- und Installationsarbeiten sind Formen und Aspekte des kollektiven und individuellen Gedächtnisses und Erinnerung. Mit unterschiedlichen künstlerischen Mitteln, die sich zwischen dem dokumentarischen und fiktionalen Bewegen, untersuche und analysiere ich historische und gesellschaftliche Einschreibungen sowie Konstellationen, Transformationen und Verbindungen zwischen verschiedenen Epochen und Systemen. Durch eine bildkritische Praxis beleuchte ich Formen historischer Repräsentation sowie Muster und Perspektiven des Widerstands und versuche lineare Erzählformen zu durchbrechen. Der Akt des Suchens ist ein immanentes Werkzeug, um Bild- und Erzählzusammenhänge zu beleuchten, neue Bedeutungen abzuleiten und Regime-bildern und Bildregimen auf den Grund zu gehen. Die selbstreferentielle Kritik des Blicks ist ein integraler Bestandteil meiner künstlerischen Praxis. Der Kommentar dient als Reflexionsebene, als sensorische Notation von Bild und Ton. Es sind keine vorgefassten Urteile, sondern Möglichkeitsräume, die das Politische mit dem Poetischen in meiner Arbeit verbinden.

The starting point for my essayistic works and installations are forms and aspects of collective and individual memory and remembrance. Using various artistic means that oscillate between the documentary and the fictional, I examine and analyze historical and social inscriptions, as well as constellations, transformations, and connections between different eras and systems. Through a practice of image criticism, I shed light on forms of historical representation as well as patterns and perspectives of resistance, and attempt to break through linear narrative forms. The act of searching is an intrinsic tool for illuminating visual and narrative contexts, deriving new meanings, and getting to the bottom of regime images and image regimes. The self-referential critique of the gaze is an integral part of my artistic practice. Commentary serves as a level of reflection, as a sensory notation of image and sound. It is not preconceived judgments, but spaces of possibility that connect the political with the poetic in my work.

Johannes Gierlinger (*1985) In seiner künstlerischen Arbeit beschäftigt er sich mit Formen von Erinnerung und kollektivem Gedächtnis sowie mit Perspektiven des Widerstands. Mittels dokumentarischer und essayistischer Methoden untersucht er in seinen filmischen und installativen Arbeiten die historischen und gesellschaftlichen Spuren, die unterschiedliche politische Systeme und Epochen hinterlassen haben. Im Zentrum stehen dabei Erinnerungsräume, menschliche Erfahrungen, Protestformen, Transgenerationalität, der Traum, Zeitzeug*innenberichte, Archive sowie Lücken innerhalb historischer Narrative. Im Fokus stehen dabei Prozesse der Transformation, Konstellationen zwischen Vergangenheit und Gegenwart sowie Fragen der Repräsentation und ihrer Wirkungsweisen. Gierlinger untersucht dabei in poetisch Form wie visuelle und narrative Strukturen fortwirken und in der Gegenwart sichtbar, verwoben und erfahrbar bleiben und stellt nicht zuletzt dabei Fragen zu möglichen Zukunftsräumen. Seine Arbeiten wurden mit zahlreichen Preisen und Stipendien ausgezeichnet, u.a. mit dem Birgit Jürgenssen Preis, dem Bmkoes Outstanding Artist Award für Film, dem ZINEBI Bilbao - Unicef Award, dem Jahresstipendium für Film - Land Salzburg, dem Diagonale Dokumentarfilm Kurzfilmpreis. Er zeigte seine Arbeiten bei nationalen sowie internationalen Filmfestivals & Institution, unter anderem Visions Du Réel Nyon (CH), EMAF Osnabrück (DE), CPH:DOX (DK), IMPAKT Festival (NL), ZINEBI Bilbao (ESP), Belvedere21 (AT), Werkleitz Zentrum für Medienkunst (DE), Filmmakers Milano (IT), Museum der Moderne Salzburg (AT), Bienal de Artes Mediales de Santiago (CL), Edinburgh IFF (GB), Bergamo Film Meeting (IT), Dokufest (KOS), Antimatter [Media Art] (CA), Kassel Dokfest (DE), rotor Graz (AT), Salzburger Kunstverein (AT), Diagonale Graz (AT). Johannes Gierlinger (*1985). In his artistic work, he deals with forms of remembrance and collective memory as well as perspectives of resistance. Using documentary and essayistic methods, Gierlinger examines in his films and installations the historical and social traces left behind by different political systems and eras. Thereby he focus on memory spaces, human experiences, forms of protest, transgenerationality, dream, testimonies, archives, and gaps within historical narratives. Central to his work are processes of transformation, constellations between the past and the present, and questions of representation and its effects. In poetic form, Gierlinger examines how visual and narrative structures continue to have an effect and remain visible, interwoven, and experiential in the present, and, not least, raises questions about possible future spaces. His work has been awarded numerous prizes and grants, including the Birgit Jürgenssen Award, ZINEBI Bilbao - Unicef Award, Bmkoes Outstanding Artist Award for Film, Annual Scholarship for Film - Federal state Salzburg, the Diagonale Documentary Short Film Award. He showed his work at national and international film festivals & institution, among others Visions Du Réel Nyon (CH), EMAF Osnabrück (DE), CPH:DOX (DK), IMPAKT Festival (NL), ZINEBI Bilbao (ESP), Belvedere21 (AT), Werkleitz Zentrum für Medienkunst (DE), Filmmakers Milano (IT), Museum der Moderne Salzburg (AT), Bienal de Artes Mediales de Santiago (CL), Edinburgh IFF (GB), Bergamo Film Meeting (IT), Dokufest (KOS), Antimatter [Media Art] (CA), Kassel Dokfest (DE), rotor Graz (AT), Salzburger Kunstverein (AT), Diagonale Graz (AT). Lives and works in Vienna.
